1 March 2009. Tiger Airways today celebrated another step in its expanding network with the commencement of Tiger Airways flights to Kota Kinabalu in East Malaysia.

Tiger Airways is celebrating the addition of the new destination to its network by putting 15,000 FREE seats on sale for flights between Singapore and Kota Kinabalu travellers only have to pay the airport charges and taxes of SGD $39 or $89 Ringgit on www.tigerairways.com.

Rosalynn Tay, Managing Director of Tiger Airways Singapore said, Tiger Airways is absolutely delighted to add yet another fantastic destination to its network. Kota Kinabalu is famous as a great short break destination and with fares as low as this so many more people can now visit it.

Tiger Airways has another reason to celebrate today with its recently delivered second A319 operating its first commercial service on the inaugural flight to Kota Kinabalu.

Rosalynn Tay said Not only am I delighted with our new route but having our brand new A319 plane operate its first commercial service on the inaugural flight is fabulous. The beauty of this new 144 seat plane allows Tiger Airways to nurture and develop new routes to their full potential.

To commemorate the occasion Tiger Airways passengers were given a warm welcome with a spectacular performance by the Sabah cultural troupe, including warriors and musicians, as well as receiving flower garlands upon arrival.

Tiger Airways Singapore new low fare flights to Kota Kinabalu depart Singapore at 09:15 arriving in Kota Kinabalu depart at 11:30. Flights from Kota Kinabalu depart will depart at 12:00 arriving in Singapore at 14:25 daily.
