Singapore Thursday 19 March 2009. Tiger Airways has put 150,000 FREE seats on sale today to help everyday people take a short break from the daily grind and recharge their batteries.

Rosalynn Tay, managing director of Tiger Airways Singapore said “With the news full of doom and gloom it is time to shout STOP! I need a break! There is no time like the present to take advantage of the great deals that all our Tiger Airways destinations have on offer. So do yourself a favor and book a terrific FREE Tiger Airways fare today!”

For those that have trouble choosing where to go Tiger Airways has ensured it has lots of destinations on sale to cater for everyone’s tastes. The current sale covers 6 fabulous destinations across Asia - FREE - just pay the taxes and charges of between $25 and $85.

Rosalynn Tay said “Friends and family all have favorite destinations they want to visit when they want to get away. At Tiger Airways we realise that this can make choosing a short break destination tricky. It’s the same conversation around town, should we go shopping, or go to the beach? The good news is that Tiger Airways fares are so cheap that you can book several trips and still not break the budget – that way you keep everyone happy.”
