

Media Release

Tiger Airways Help Travelers Escape to Thai Resorts with Cheap Fares in May

- Phuket, Krabi, Hat Yai and Pattaya (via Bangkok Airport) from $50/ $60 / $65, including taxes
- Book from 15 to 21 April
- Other cheap fares for traveling in May on www.tigerairways.com

Singapore, 15 April 2010. Tiger Airways Singapore today offered cheap solutions for traveling to Thailand.

Cheap fares in May 2010 enable travelers to enjoy relaxing holidays in Phuket, Krabi, Hat Yai and Pattaya. On sale from 15 to 21 April, tickets to Phuket and Krabi are from S$50 including taxes, while Hat Yai tickets are from S$60 including taxes. It costs only from S$65 including taxes to fly to Bangkok International Airport, which is a short bus ride away from the beach resort Pattaya.

Rosalynn Tay, Managing Director of Tiger Airways Singapore, said, "Thailand offers abundant resort options to escape from the city. We are pleased to help travelers enjoy these options in the cheapest way possible. Besides Phuket, Krabi and Hat Yai, we also serve Pattaya via the convenient gateway of Bangkok International Airport."

Traveling in May has also been made cheaper on other Tiger Airways international routes. From now till 21 April, travelers can book these cheap seats online at www.tigerairways.com, or call the new Tiger Airways call centre numbers:

Singapore (Main number) +65 68084437
Hong Kong +852 3060 9155
India +800 600 1153
Indonesia +1803 601 933
Malaysia +603 7849 4608
Philippines +63 2884 1524
Thailand +1 800 601 5637

(Guangzhou and Vietnam will have new hotline numbers from 15 May 2010. Meanwhile, customers can call the new Singapore number or the existing local numbers +86 20 2283 0595 and +848 3824 5868)

END